FEDERICO GINER

Description

Dida chair with solid beech wood legs. Designed for use in offices, libraries, dining rooms, and classrooms. Available in size 6.

Components

Shell:

- Polypropylene + 15% GF.
- Manufactured using injection molding.

Top + Base:

- 70% polypropylene + 30% GF.

Leas:

- Solid beech wood.

Main features

- Robust.
- Ergonomic shell.
- Option: Upholstered seat in sizes 5 and 6.
- Textured anti-slip shell.
- Rounded seat edge and lumbar shape at the bottom of the backrest.
- Slightly flexible backrest.
- Integrated armrest in the chair design.
- Reinforced in the lower part of the backrest.
- Designed specifically to adopt multiple sitting positions: frontal, lateral, and inverted (straddle) without any restrictions for the user.
- Reinforced in the lower part of the backrest.
- Backrest extension for arm support in lateral and inverted sitting positions.

Details and options

Maintenance

- Check the condition of the shell.
- Check for any cracks or dangerous breaks.
- Check the condition of the legs and ensure that the shell is firmly attached.

Cleaning

- Remove dust with a dry cloth or brush. Clean with a sponge or cloth with neutral soap or a mixture of water and vinegar. For ingrained dirt, grease residue, or stains, ammonia can be used.
- Clean the wooden legs with neutral soap.